

Job Title: Safety Intern

Position Information

No of Openings: 5
Work Schedule: M-F (overtime available)
Hours per Week: 40
Wage/Salary: $18 -$25 +relocation stipend
Start Date: 5/20/2015
End Date: 8/10/2015

Job Description: One of California's largest oil producers is currently seeking Occupational Safety & Health Summer Interns for 2015 in coastal and inland California locations including Bakersfield and surrounding areas. Intern Job Summary: Qualitative Health and Exposure Assessment of operations personnel and development of sampling strategies Chemical, Physical, Biological, and Ergonomic source evaluation, sampling and analysis to determine potential exposures Human Factors/Ergonomics facility design development. Safety and Health Program Auditing and Incident Investigation. Provide recommendations to improve safety and health. Emergency incident management program development. Intern Qualifications: Students pursuing a BS/MS in Occupational Safety and Health /EHS/Industrial Hygiene.

Both Information Pizza Luncheon on 10/27 and interviews on 10/27 & 28 will be in Whitlock 468 Center for Career & Co-op. Call 859-622-1296 to get on interview schedule after obtaining approval from Faculty Co-op Coordinator.

Qualifications: Pizza Information Session in Whitlock 468 from 12 noon - 1 PM on Monday, October 27th. Interviews will follow. Required 3.0 +GPA and US citizenship. Interviews will follow lunch on Monday, October 27th and on Tuesday morning October 28. Please see Center for Career & Co-op for interview sign up.

Posting Information

Job Location: California
Job Category: Oil and Gas
Classification:

Majors: EHS Environmental Health Science, OSH Occupational Safety & Health, SSE2 Safety Security Emergency Mgt-Online, SSE Safety Security Emergency Mgt, SSE2-a, SSE2-b

Post Date: 08/19/2014
Expiration Date: 10/15/2014

Status: Active