

Industrial Construction Safety Internship

Four Square Industrial Constructors, LLC. is a full-service industrial construction company with a special emphasis toward the process and manufacturing industries. From the drawing board to startup, Four Square Industrial Constructors team of professional engineers, estimators, project managers and schedulers assist our customers with:

- Construction
- Budgeting
- Planning
- Scheduling
- Time sensitive projects.

The multiple requirements of our clients are supported on every project by the skills of our millwrights, ironworkers, pipe fitters, and subcontractors. Our services include but not limited to:

- Heavy Lifting & Rigging
- Steel Erection
- Process Piping Installation
- Plant Equipment Installation
- Fabrication
- Industrial Maintenance
- Civil/Concrete

Qualifications:

- Working toward a four-year degree in Occupational Safety and Health, Construction Management or similar discipline, or equivalent experience, with a minimum of two (2) years of education and a basic knowledge of safety/environmental principles and techniques.
- Capable of identifying known potential exposures and recommending corrective actions. Computer skills and familiarity with Microsoft Office suite programs.
- Developing leadership characteristics and interpersonal skills with the ability to communicate well, both verbally and in writing.
- Successful candidates will have the opportunity to work summers and winter until graduation.

Responsibilities:

- Assist with managing EHS software
- Assist Safety Director with Reports and metrics
- Develop Industrial Hygiene Program

- Perform on-site audits
- Be able to communicate at all levels of the organization
- Assist Field Safety Managers with daily tasks
- Safety Program reviews
- Observe and learn skills of Industrial Construction Industry
- Assist Safety Director and Managers with incident investigations
- Work will involve exposure to various noise and dust levels.
- Must be able to wear PPE including boots, hard hat, safety glasses, high visibility clothing, fall protection, hearing protection, and respirator if necessary.
- Climb Stairs and ladders
- Be exposed to changing weather conditions.

Please submit resumes to Austin Adams – Safety Director

Austin.adams@foursquareindustrial.com